"I do the heaviest advertising in duil times.
"Then it is when people took most keenly for bargains and are anxious to know what things cost, and where they can save money. I advertise particular things, give prices, and take as much pains with my announcement as I do with my stock. One big dinner wont keep up the reputation of the big house—but steady, good cooking does it. I never permit interest in my announcements to lag, and never miles an issue in my chosen publications.
